

The Hungarian Association / Magyar Társaság is pleased to present from Oakland, California, writer & independent filmmaker

George Paul Csicsery

Meet & talk with him in person!

WHERE: Crowne Plaza Cleveland City Centre Hotel,
6th floor meeting rooms, 777 St. Clair Ave., in downtown
Cleveland, Ohio 44144

WHEN:

◆ Friday, Nov. 28, 2008      2 - 4 pm

Film workshop: View and critique his in-production film, Songs Along A Stony Road, about musicians discovered in Transylvanian villages. Discuss films career paths and “pure” filmmaking versus television productions. Film Workshop - Free!

◆ Friday, Nov. 28, 2008      8:30 pm

Premiere of Troop 214, about the irrepressible nature and revival of the Hungarian scout movement, compared to the once popular Communist youth Pioneers.

Tickets: $6 at the door

GEORGE PAUL CSICSERY has directed 26 films -- dramatic shorts, performance films and documentaries, and is the author or co-author of four feature-length screenplays. Csicsery's articles, reviews and interviews have appeared in many popular as well as academic publications. He has a BA in Comparative Religions from UC Berkeley and an MFA in Film Production from San Francisco State University. Csicsery has taught film editing at Film Arts Foundation in San Francisco and general cinema courses to undergraduates at San Francisco State University and at UC Davis.

More information about George Paul Csicsery's films can be found at: www.zalafilms.com

Sponsored by the Magyar Társaság / Hungarian Association

Jöjjön el a XLVIII. Magyar Kongresszusra!

You are cordially invited to attend the 48th Hungarian Congress & Hungarian Ball, November 28-30, 2008 at the Crowne Plaza City Centre Hotel.

For more information, write or call or visit us on the Internet -

P.O. Box 771066, Cleveland, OH 44107 USA (216) 651-4929, 521-7183 or 228-4089

E-mail: magyartarsasag@nadas.org

www.hungarianassociation.com

